

ALON Software

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy applies to our website <http://alonsoftware.com> (Site) and our applications. By using our Site and applications you agree to this policy. This Privacy Policy informs you how ALON Software collects and uses information collected from users ("Users") of the Site and applications.

1. Personal identification information

We may collect personal identification information from Users in a variety of ways (when Users visit our site, use our contact forms or other services on the Site). Users may be asked for their name and email address. Also, Users may visit our Site anonymously. We will collect personal identification information from Users only if they submit such information to us.

2. Non-personal identification information

We may collect non-personal identification information about Users whenever they visit the Site. Non-personal identification information may include the browser name, the type of computer or mobile device, operating system and other similar information.

3. Web browser cookies

Our Site may use "cookies" to improve our service and enhance User experience.

4. YouTube Integration

Enabling our optional YouTube publishing integration constitutes an agreement to be additionally bound by the YouTube Terms of Service <https://www.youtube.com/t/terms> and privacy policy <https://policies.google.com/privacy>. Our optional YouTube publishing integration utilizes YouTube API Services. Enabling this integration grants ALON Dictaphone(Dictaphone) permission to publish assets to YouTube account. You may revoke permission at any time by disabling the integration or revoking access from the Google security settings page <https://security.google.com/settings/security/permissions>

5. How we use collected information

We may collect and use users' personal information to improve and personalize customer service. The information you provide helps us respond more effectively to your support needs.

6. How we protect your information

We adopt appropriate data mentioned above collection, storage and processing practices and security measures to protect against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure or destruction of your personal information and data stored on our Site. We don't collect any data which Users generate by our applications.

7. Sharing your personal information

We do not sell or share Users personal identification information to others. We may share aggregated information not linked to any personal identification information with third parties. We may also disclose information:

- to the extent we are required by law,
- in connection with legal proceedings,
- if you give us your explicit agreement.

8. Third party websites and services

Our Site contains links to the sites of third parties and our applications contain links to third parties' services (like E-mail, FTP servers, Dropbox, SoundCloud, GoogleDrive, OneDrive, Box, Evernote and iCloud, etc.). Some of them may ask you to provide personal information for authentication and use it according to their privacy policies. Please, note that we are not responsible for using your personal information and data by third parties' services. As data transfers over the internet are inherently insecure, we cannot guarantee the security of the information sent over the internet.

9. Your acceptance of this privacy policy

By using the Site and our applications, you accept this policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use our Site and applications.
